Tammy Lynn Fredericks
Confidence is simply that quiet assured feeling you have before you fall flat on your face.

Serena Marie Gabrielson
Far away, there in the sunshine, are my highest aspirations. I may not reach them, but I can look up and see their beauty, believe in them, and try to follow where they lead.

Robin Leigh Geshick
Life is not always what one wants it to be, but to make the best of it as it is, is the only way of being happy.

Christopher Leroy Glancy
Those who bring sunshine to the lives of others cannot keep it from themselves.

Amy Diane Hanskala
To play great music, you must keep your eyes on a distant star.·

My interest is in the future because I am going to spend the rest of my life there.

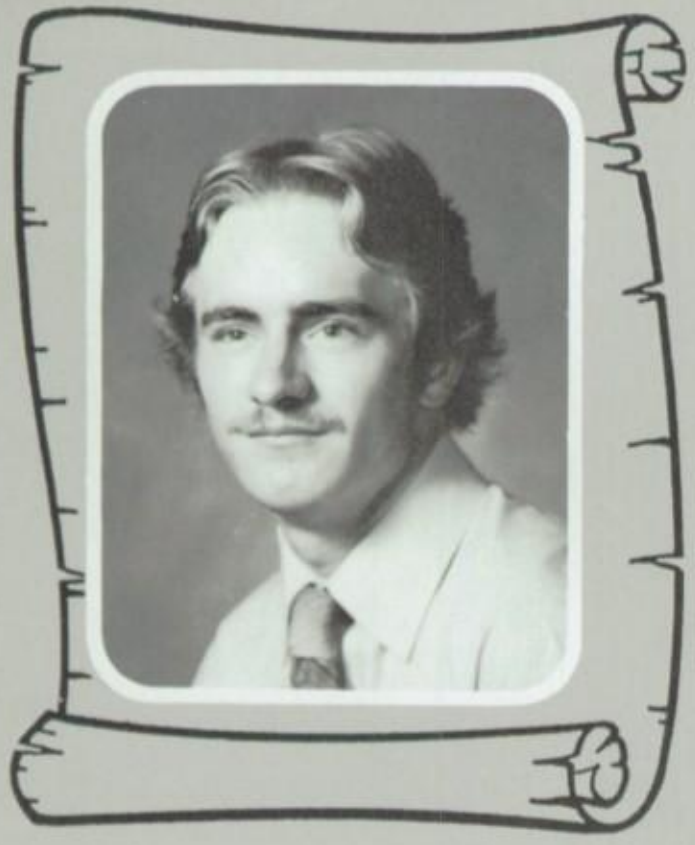
George Putney
Life goes on, but the best is still to come.



Walter Putney
Nothing is accomplished without hard work.

PROPHECY

It is the year 1996. The 1986 Orr Senior Class has gathered in the William E. King Gymnasium to celebrate its ten year reunion.

KRISTIE LAAKKONEN announces that she and GENO EDDY have just perfected a time machine that will transport people to the Middle Ages.

CARLA MELGEORGE enters first and discovers that she and JOE MANICK have become King and Queen of England while Arthur and Guinevere are on vacation. It seems that Sir GEORGE PUTNEY is filling in for Merlin the Magician. The rat catcher has been replaced by Lady KRISTIE LAAKKONEN and Sir GENO EDDY has replaced the hangman.

The royal artist is Lady PENNIE HOLMER, who paints a perfect picture.

Out on the jousting field, Sir CHRIS GLANCY and Sir JOHN HETRA are fighting for the hand of Lady SHAWN SCOTT. Sir WALTER PUTNEY, their instructor, looks on with pride.

Lady SUZAN PRESLEY is trapped in a tower, awaiting rescue. She does not wait long, for the royal party of Sir GARY SKRABA and Lady AMY HANSKALA is on its way.

The Black Knight, Sir DON KOCH, has mended his ways and has rescued Lady ROBIN GESHICK from a vat of burning oil. She rewarded him with twelve castles.

While PETER DRIFT, Czar of Russia, was asleep, his kingdom was conquered by Lady KELLY CONNOR who becomes Czarina.

Ladies KATHY ISHAM and DENISE POHLMAN have opened a school for young damsels. Classes include: "Capturing Prince Charming" and "Dealing with Wicked Stepmothers." Lady TAMMY FREDERICKS is their first student and is due to graduate soon.

Lady SERENA GABRIELSON has become the Elf Queen. She is kept busy because Lady DAWN STRONG also wishes to rule. They have decided to divide the kingdom and live happily ever after.

Lady BECKY PALMER rescued the King of Ireland by kissing a frog and freeing him from an evil curse. They plan a fall wedding.

Last, but definitely not least, SHEILA INKMAN has become the Lady of the Lake, Ruler of Avalon.

The time has finally arrived to bring everyone back again. The Class of 1986 begins to make plans for their twenty year reunion.

A story of a knight you are hearing,
  Who was neither pious, nor devout,
Brawling, gambling, cursing and swearing,
  He wasted half the year out and out.

There they sat all together,
  In the old knights' hall-birds of a feather;
Down from the stone walls the torchlight shone bright,
  Glimmering far into the deep of the night.

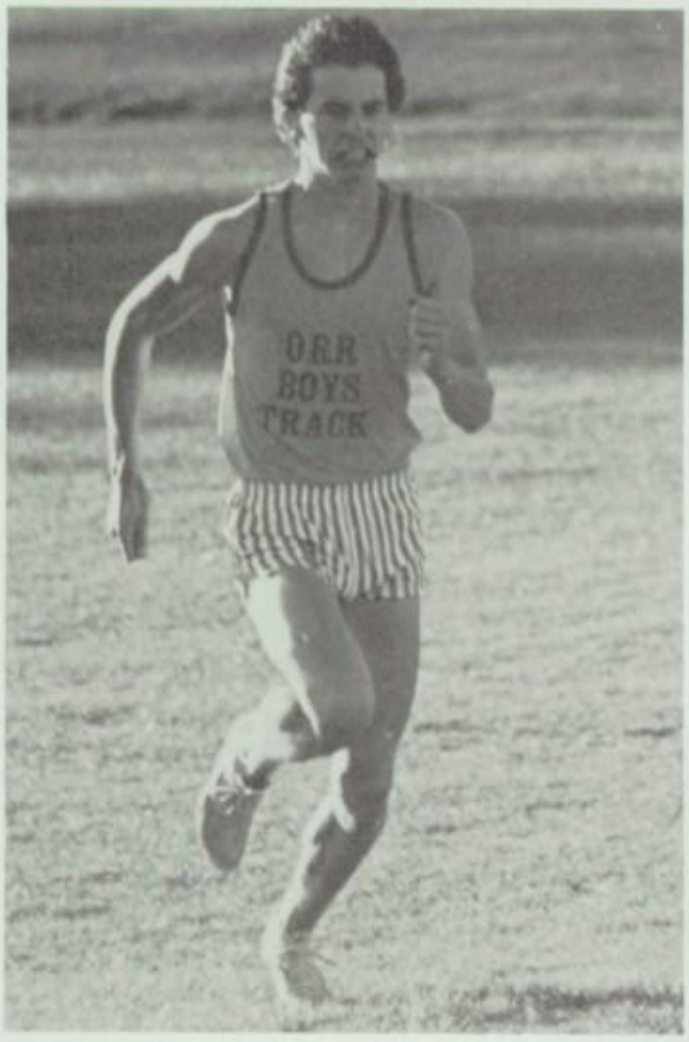
EXTRA KILIBARDA--A PERFECT TEN!!

PETER KILIBARDA: CROSS COUNTRY STAR

The pride and joy of the junior class placed tenth in the state meet after much hard work and dedication. Peter was off to a good start when he took first in the District 27A Cross Country Meet. Said Peter, "I feel a lot better now . . . I will just try to win at regions . . . then I will go for state . . . today's race was great." Peter's words proved prophetic as he went on to take first place in the regional meet. Modestly, Peter only said "the wind pushed me." With two major wins behind him, Peter set off for state. There, in a field of many competitive runners, Peter showed the spectators what Orr athletes can do: he placed tenth. What we want to know is, what did he see at the finish line to enable him to outrun the wind?



Congratulations, Peter. The Orr School is proud to have such a talented runner in our midst. We can't wait to see you running next year!

PEOPLE

Jon Barto and Rachel Soger

Homecoming week began with Nerd Day. Many Nerds came out of hiding to help us celebrate. Tuesday was Backwards Day. Some brave souls even wore their pants backwards! Wednesday was Summer Day. Mrs. Kurz best demonstrated wishful thinking when she showed up in a grass skirt and a lei. Also on Wednesday the candidates were sold in a slave auction. In the afternoon, the candidates participated in many unusual sporting events, with the seniors dominating. Thursday was Bag Lady/Man Day. Bags with all sorts of strange things were in evidence. Thursday afternoon the students and teachers faced off in a game of floor hockey. The teachers, albeit with the help of a miracle, managed to win. Friday was traditional Blue and Gold Day. Friday night the Braves demolished the Tower-Soudan Eagles. After the game, the coronation took place. Junior candidates were Jess Blake, Sandra Manick, Catherine Presley, and Jon Skelton. Senior candidates were Serena Gabrielson, Don Koch, Joe Manick, and Denise Pohlman. The crownbearers were Jon Barto and Rachel Soger. The 1986 Homecoming King and Queen were Joe and Sandra Manick. Following the coronation, the Homecoming Dance was held. A good time was had by all.

ANOTHER ONE RIDES THE BUS

Riding the bus is the worst possible doom. Ask Bobby Johnson or any kid under 98 pounds. It's a lighted pathway to the Oz of total nerd-ism. It rattles toward you like a giant, yellow tank. Closer. Closer. It stops. The doors creak open and Jess is forced to ascend ... one, two, three, ... steep, threatening stairs. You're there. Inside the dreaded ... schoolbus. But Rylko tries to get out. For years, teenagers everywhere have tried to discover the best excuse for not having to ride the bus.

"But, Mom, I overslept and can't go to school until I finish my oatmeal." "Of course you can't, Keith. I'll drive you today." Victory. Keith smiles. But, who in their right mind would use the oatmeal excuse every day?

If all else fails, anxiety-ridden teenagers can fake an injury that will ensure special attention. Or, they can just throw themselves on the floor and beg for mercy. Regardless of the seemingly endless efforts, there will be times when you are forced to ride the bus. Maybe all of the family cars are in the repair shop and you don't want to be a poor sport. Or, maybe you've just become battle weary and have decided to surrender. Take it like a hero. Be proud that you have the self-awareness to rise above peer pressure. Who knows? Next year, the only acceptable mode of transportation will be the bus. You could be starting a trend.
